

04-233

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

APR 28 2008

FCC-MAILROOM

Rt 7 Box 130
Olive Hill, Ky 41164
April 20, 2008

Ladies and Gentlemen;

Don't think the FCC should take away our rights to Christian Radio! According to the First Admentment it protects the free exercise of religion. The government must not be allowed to impose rules that violates that right. Next thing you know they will try to take away our rights to go to any church of our choice!

This GREAT Nation was founded upon the right to worship our GOD.

No organization, government or otherwise should have the right to take away our right to worship GOD!

Sincerely,
Helma J. Moore

2008 APR 28 P 2: 39

4/16/2008

Chairman Kevin J. Martin
 Federal Communications Commission
 445 12th Street, SW
 Washington, DC 20554
 Re: In the Matter of Broadcast Localism (MB Docket No. 04-233)

Dear Chairman Martin,

I am writing to you today in response to the recent information that the Federal Communications Commission is considering a radical re-regulation of America's local broadcasters.

I believe that additional mandates on local broadcasters are not only unnecessary, but would also be burdensome and potentially offer the opposite results of those intended. Our experience with Clear Channel San Francisco/San Jose has been very positive, and their ten stations – KIOI-FM, KISQ-FM, KKGN-AM, KKSF-FM, KMEL-FM, KNEW-AM, and KYLD-FM, KSJO-FM, KUFY-FM, and KCNL-FM - go above and beyond what is mandated to serve the local community.

Clear Channel San Francisco/San Jose donates PSAs to local non-profit and community service organizations such as ours. In addition, the Clear Channel San Francisco/San Jose stations have partnered with local charities and organizations to help raise money for the local community. I

Recipient AT&T / Energy 92.7 FM
 Community Hero Spotlight Award

2007 Winner
 PEOPLE Magazine & Maybelline
 New York Empowerment Through
 Education Contest

No. of Copies rec'd 0
 List ABCDE

have personally experienced not only the gratuity, but the support of Clear Channel San Francisco/San Jose through numerous occasions.

Chairman Martin, I appreciate you taking our views into consideration during the ongoing proceeding. Along with the local broadcasters, I urge you not to impose the burdensome rules that could well hamper radio's ability to continue their community service work.

Thank you for your consideration.

DreamBIG,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'Janine Lee'.

Janine Lee
Founder and CEO
Capture the Dream, Inc.

"Fostering hope, love, and support to capture dreams."

Recipient AT&T / Energy 92.7 FM
Community Hero Spotlight Award

2007 Winner
PEOPLE Magazine & Maybelline
New York Empowerment Through
Education Contest

HFOY

2008 APR 28 P 2:44

HIV/AIDS NATIONAL AWARENESS CAMPAIGN
GET TESTED... GET YOUR RESULTS... LIVE YOUR LIFE

April 14, 2008

Chairman Kevin J. Martin
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Re: In the Matter of Broadcast Localism (MB Docket No. 04-233)

Dear Chairman Martin,

I am writing to you today in response to the recent information that The Federal Communications Commission is considering a radical re-regulation of America's local broadcasters. I believe that additional mandates on local broadcasters are not only unnecessary, but would also be burdensome and potentially offer the opposite results of those intended. Our experience with Clear Channel San Francisco/San Jose has been very positive, and their ten stations – KIOI-FM, KISQ-FM, KKGN-AM, KKSF-FM, KMEL-FM, KNEW-AM, and KYLD-FM, KSJO-FM, KUFX-FM, and KCNL-FM - go above and beyond what is mandated to serve the local community.

Clear Channel San Francisco/San Jose donates PSAs to local non-profit and community service organizations such as ours. In addition, the Clear Channel San Francisco/San Jose stations have partnered with local charities and organizations to help raise money for the local community.

Chairman Martin, I appreciate you taking our views into consideration during the ongoing proceeding. Along with the local broadcasters, I urge you not to impose the burdensome rules that could well hamper radio's ability to continue their community service work.

Sincerely,

La Trina L. Reed

La Trina L. Reed
Executive Operations Director/ Co-Founder- J4L Foundation, Inc.
510.978.3343 direct hopeforouryouth@yahoo.com

No. of Copies rec'd 0
List ABCDE

Comments in Response to Localism Notice of Proposed Rulemaking
MB Docket No. 04-233

I submit the following comments in response to the Localism Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (the "NPRM"), released Jan. 24, 2008, in MB Docket No. 04-233.

Any new FCC rules, policies or procedures must not violate First Amendment rights. A number of proposals discussed in the NPRM, if enacted, would do so – and must not be adopted.

(1) The FCC must not force radio stations, especially religious broadcasters, to take advice from people who do not share their values. The NPRM's proposed advisory board proposals would impose such unconstitutional mandates. Religious broadcasters who resist advice from those who don't share their values could face increased harassment, complaints and even loss of license for choosing to follow their own consciences, rather than allowing incompatible viewpoints to shape their programming. The First Amendment prohibits government, including the FCC, from dictating what viewpoints a broadcaster, particularly a religious broadcaster, must present.

(2) The FCC must not turn every radio station into a public forum where anyone and everyone has rights to air time. Proposed public access requirements would do so – even if a religious broadcaster conscientiously objects to the message. The First Amendment forbids imposition of message delivery mandates on any religion.

(3) The FCC must not force revelation of specific editorial decision-making information. The choice of programming, especially religious programming, is not properly dictated by any government agency – and proposals to force reporting on such things as who produced what programs would intrude on constitutionally-protected editorial choices.

(4) The FCC must not establish a two-tiered renewal system in which certain licensees would be automatically barred from routine renewal application processing. The proposed mandatory special renewal review of certain classes of applicants by the Commissioners themselves would amount to coercion of religious broadcasters. Those who stay true to their consciences and present only the messages they correspond to their beliefs could face long, expensive and potentially ruinous renewal proceedings.

(5) Many Christian broadcasters operate on tight budgets, as do many smaller market secular stations. Keeping the electricity flowing is often a challenge. Yet, the Commission proposes to further squeeze niche and smaller market broadcasters, by substantially raising costs in two ways: (a) by requiring staff presence whenever a station is on the air and, (b) by further restricting main studio location choices. Raising costs with these proposals would force service cutbacks – and curtailed service is contrary to the public interest.

We urge the FCC not to adopt rules, procedures or policies discussed above.

Joyce Larner
Signature

Joyce Larner
Name

Title (if any)

Organization (if any)

4-20-08
Date

7153 Darnell Ln
Address Greendale, IL 63129

414-421-3504
Phone

No. of Copies rec'd 0
List ABCDE

Comments in Response to Localism Notice of Proposed Rulemaking
MB Docket No. 04-233

I submit the following comments in response to the Localism Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (the "NPRM"), released Jan. 24, 2008, in MB Docket No. 04-233.

Any new FCC rules, policies or procedures must not violate First Amendment rights. A number of proposals discussed in the NPRM, if enacted, would do so – and must not be adopted.

(1) The FCC must not force radio stations, especially religious broadcasters, to take advice from people who do not share their values. The NPRM's proposed advisory board proposals would impose such unconstitutional mandates. Religious broadcasters who resist advice from those who don't share their values could face increased harassment, complaints and even loss of license for choosing to follow their own consciences, rather than allowing incompatible viewpoints to shape their programming. The First Amendment prohibits government, including the FCC, from dictating what viewpoints a broadcaster, particularly a religious broadcaster, must present.

(2) The FCC must not turn every radio station into a public forum where anyone and everyone has rights to air time. Proposed public access requirements would do so – even if a religious broadcaster conscientiously objects to the message. The First Amendment forbids imposition of message delivery mandates on any religion.

(3) The FCC must not force revelation of specific editorial decision-making information. The choice of programming, especially religious programming, is not properly dictated by any government agency – and proposals to force reporting on such things as who produced what programs would intrude on constitutionally-protected editorial choices.

(4) The FCC must not establish a two-tiered renewal system in which certain licensees would be automatically barred from routine renewal application processing. The proposed mandatory special renewal review of certain classes of applicants by the Commissioners themselves would amount to coercion of religious broadcasters. Those who stay true to their consciences and present only the messages they correspond to their beliefs could face long, expensive and potentially ruinous renewal proceedings.

(5) Many Christian broadcasters operate on tight budgets, as do many smaller market secular stations. Keeping the electricity flowing is often a challenge. Yet, the Commission proposes to further squeeze niche and smaller market broadcasters, by substantially raising costs in two ways: (a) by requiring staff presence whenever a station is on the air and, (b) by further restricting main studio location choices. Raising costs with these proposals would force service cutbacks – and curtailed service is contrary to the public interest.

We urge the FCC not to adopt rules, procedures or policies discussed above.

Robin Larner

Signature

4/20/08
Date

Robin Larner

Name

7153 Darnell Lane
Address Greendale WI 53129

(414) 421-3504
Phone

Title (if any)

Organization (if any)

No. of Copies rec'd 0
List ABCDE

Comments in Response to Localism Notice of Proposed Rulemaking
MB Docket No. 04-233

I submit the following comments in response to the Localism Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (the "NPRM"), released Jan. 24, 2008, in MB Docket No. 04-233.

Any new FCC rules, policies or procedures must not violate First Amendment rights. A number of proposals discussed in the NPRM, if enacted, would do so – and must not be adopted.

(1) The FCC must not force radio stations, especially religious broadcasters, to take advice from people who do not share their values. The NPRM's proposed advisory board proposals would impose such unconstitutional mandates. Religious broadcasters who resist advice from those who don't share their values could face increased harassment, complaints and even loss of license for choosing to follow their own consciences, rather than allowing incompatible viewpoints to shape their programming. The First Amendment prohibits government, including the FCC, from dictating what viewpoints a broadcaster, particularly a religious broadcaster, must present.

(2) The FCC must not turn every radio station into a public forum where anyone and everyone has rights to air time. Proposed public access requirements would do so – even if a religious broadcaster conscientiously objects to the message. The First Amendment forbids imposition of message delivery mandates on any religion.

(3) The FCC must not force revelation of specific editorial decision-making information. The choice of programming, especially religious programming, is not properly dictated by any government agency – and proposals to force reporting on such things as who produced what programs would intrude on constitutionally-protected editorial choices.

(4) The FCC must not establish a two-tiered renewal system in which certain licensees would be automatically barred from routine renewal application processing. The proposed mandatory special renewal review of certain classes of applicants by the Commissioners themselves would amount to coercion of religious broadcasters. Those who stay true to their consciences and present only the messages they correspond to their beliefs could face long, expensive and potentially ruinous renewal proceedings.

(5) Many Christian broadcasters operate on tight budgets, as do many smaller market secular stations. Keeping the electricity flowing is often a challenge. Yet, the Commission proposes to further squeeze niche and smaller market broadcasters, by substantially raising costs in two ways: (a) by requiring staff presence whenever a station is on the air and, (b) by further restricting main studio location choices. Raising costs with these proposals would force service cutbacks – and curtailed service is contrary to the public interest.

We urge the FCC not to adopt rules, procedures or policies discussed above.

Thelma L Moore

Signature

April 20, 2008
Date

Thelma L Moore

Name

RT7 Box 130
Address Olive Hill, Ky 41164

(606) 238-4044
Phone

Title (if any)

Organization (if any)

04-233

April 21, 2008

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I usually do not get involved with political issues such as this one concerning Christian radio and religious programming. It is very important to me that I speak out because religious programming is so vital in my life and that of my husband. It keeps me grounded in my beliefs about God and family values. Frankly, there is not enough of this in secular television. I urge you strongly to keep freedom of speech free and do not tamper with Christian radio and religious programming. Thank you very much for reading my letter.

Sincerely yours,

Judy H. Ololo

No. of Copies rec'd 0
List ABCDE

RECEIVED & INDEXED
APR 28 2008
Ms. Cheryl Brannan
04-233
4-16-08
To whom it May Concern,

Am writing in regards to recent reports of changes that may cause a burden to Christian radio stations that could cause them to go off the air - Particularly

GOD BLESS AMERICA

-2-
Ms. Cheryl Brannan

K-Love - How much is enough - ?
We need to keep God's Word alive on the air - Without Him
no one would be here and that includes the government -
He's in charge and allows even

GOD BLESS AMERICA

Ms. Cheryl Brannan

The government to exist -
But the old Testament God
wanted to be our King but the people insisted on an earthly King and so God allowed them to have their King - God we trust is on the

GOD BLESS AMERICA

Ms. Cheryl Brannan

- 4 -

money and the President always says "God Bless America" But you keep trying to run God off
by putting pressure on His people - Enough is enough -

Cheryl Brannan

P.S. Do you want
God to Bless America or not?

GOD BLESS AMERICA